

417/100

(J.H. Medical School)
1 West Franklin Street CWS417/100.3
1904

I wanted to bring up the question of a Zeiss' projection apparatus for clinical work in the medical school.

One could be put up in the new amphitheatre and it could be used by the pathological and the different special departments. It costs, I believe, about four hundred dollars - but it would be invaluable. It might be referred to the Committee.

W. Osler