J. George Adami to W.O.
Jan. 8th, 1904.

(typewritten)

My dear Osler,

How would "Facts, Half Truths, and the Truth" do as a title?
Or is it too indefinite?

Let me again thank you for your invite to come and stay with you. I will do so very gladly.

I am delighted that the book interests you.*
It never struck me that Molinaeus might be a Molyneux. I picked up the book in the Quartier Latin long years ago.

With all kindest regards to you and Mrs. Osler.

Yours very sincerely,

*I think that this refers to a copy of 'Certain Miscellany Tracts'
by Sir Thomas Brown which I gave Osler.
