CHRIST CHURCH,
OXFORD.

3. June. 1904

My dear Sir

D. Collier, who is arranging for the reception of visitors to Oxford on the occasion of the meeting here of the British Medical Association, has kindly told me that I might venture to ask you to be my guest from Tuesday July 26 till the end of the Conference. I have, unfortunately, an engagement in London which I cannot postpone and therefore I cannot be here to receive you till the afternoon of Tuesday, July 26.

Believe me

Yours very truly

Thomas B. Strong

Dean of Christ Church
