...At the meeting of the Board of Directors, it was quite evident that, with the exception of our president, Dr. Trudeau, none of us had done much. (either to get money or members for our National Association). If it is to be a great success, we must individually try to get as many members in~~x~~ and out of the profession, and urge our wealthy friends to help with liberal contributions. Mrs Colby, the assistant secretary, will furnish you with a circular before long, which you could enclose to your correspondents. The subcommittee in charge of the arrangements for the annual meeting, meets within the next ten days. Do let me have any suggestions.... Do find out who the good young fellows are working at Tuberculosis in Chicago. We must catch the workers to make the affair go.
