

CUS417/101.138

(Dr. S. J. Meltzer)

1, West Franklin St.,
Baltimore.

Dec. 19th, 1904.

Dear traube-cohnheim-Meltzer:

What an indefatigable worker you are!

How you put us all to shame! When do you sleep? Your batch of papers contained a lot of good solid meat. The edema lectures are most valuable. There are many suggestive points too, in your St. Louis addresses.

Sincerely yours,

W^m Osler.