Dear Chadwick:-

I am very sorry that I cannot join your club on Friday night. It would be impossible for me to leave before the end of the week. I have to finish the practical examinations of my first group. I will be at Harry Chapin's, Jamaica Plain. I would like to spend an hour or two in the library one day, as there are several things I would like to look over. I would particularly like to see the things you have not got, so that I could act more intelligently as your Sheldonian agent in Oxford.

Sincerely yours,

P.S. Many thanks for the Sea Serpent pamphlet. It is the same "critter" in which Thatcher was interested.
