Dear Miss Jewett:

Pardon the delay in answering your very kind letter, but I have been overwhelmed with work since my return.

It is nice to hear that you are really better, 'tis an up-hill road but I am sure you are reaching a point where the grades are less steep.

I felt sure you would like Miss O'Brian -- a true Teresian.

By the way I am sending you a copy of my Ingersoll lecture, rather a rash production I fear. The last paragraph at any rate is true. It may interest you, all the same, for the sake of the writer, if not of the subject.

You will be glad to hear that Miss Garrett's picture by Sargent is an extraordinary success.

With very kind regards & best wishes,

Ysincerely yours,

Wm. Osler
