Oct. 6.

Sir George Newman.

...Here am I in bed again with a recurrence of that bronchitis. I caught cold motoring from Newcastle where, as I think I told you, I got tied up in the strike. This will prevent my being at the meeting on the 9th to my great regret. I think it would be very much better if you and McCormick will allow me quietly to drop out of this business. You need a younger man. I have written to that effect... There-is-no-reason
