OXFORD.

Dear Sir,

At the Meeting of the Grand Committee of the newly constituted Society for the Prevention of Venereal Disease held here on the 23rd inst., it was unanimously decided to invite you to accept the Presidency of the Society, and I was instructed to write you to this effect.

I have the honour to enclose copy Constitution and present List of Officers.

My Committee desire me to express their regret at your indisposition and their hope for your speedy recovery.

Yours faithfully,

Reginald Wainwright Bayly
