OXFORD

I am so sorry that W. ^{Woollett} came over with the R. ^{High} the F. ^{Flamine} council crowd. I thought he had had a definite invitation from Ld. Robt Cecil. I will write & explain the political situation.

I am still in bed, but paroxysms at longer intervals - last Thursday, & yesterday am. - one ~~that~~ nearly blew the lid off! I get up for 3 or 4 hrs, but exertion & talking bring on the cough. Meanwhile I am most comfortable, & have just finished vol. VII of Lucas' Lamb. How I should have liked to get drunk with Charles Lamb!

P.S. About Casan ^{bon} I think you are right. I will ask Madam. 'Tis a sad record. We opened (4 years ago) the box of his letters, or deposited in
