

Me
(Nov. 7, '19)

(Letter to Mrs. Robt. Brewster)
(handwriting)

13, NORHAM GARDENS
OXFORD

6th

Dear Mabel

You will have had my letter of last week about my illness. I am better & sit up part of every day. My cough is still troublesome but I am very comfortable and to tell you the truth, am having a very happy time. I forget that there is much to do - & the revision of my text book not completed! I knew you would enjoy the History, and it is such an encouragement to good reading I have finished today Lucas' edition of Lamb. 7 vols. - many of the small plays & the letters I have not read. I shall try to get for Sylvia L's Adventures of Ulysses. I think we print a nice edition at the Press. It is based on Chapmans Odessey, which was dear Reverses favorite translation. You will have had the Address by this time - a bit tough in spots. I did send you some years ago - the Meaning of the Greek Genius? let me know - as if not I should like you to have my copy. Grace keeps well & stands the boredom of a trained nurse with equanimity. Memorial vols. not yet out. I have never been a whole month in bed before. It is really a very satisfactory place.
Love to R.B. & the darlings & Uncle Ned.

Yours affectly

W.O