Dear Neligan,

Yours of July 22nd has just reached me. Of course, we shall have to postpone everything until this wretched war business is over. But meanwhile we could go ahead with perfecting the arrangements and get the committee organised.

Dr. Neligan,
British Legation,
Teheran.

August 24 1914.

P.S. Your paper will be very helpful, and Margoliouth read an excellent account of Avicenna last month at the Persia Society.
