

CU5417/83.35

W.O.

Philadelphia County Medical Society.

N. E. COR. 13TH AND LOCUST STS.

STATED MEETING, WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 14th, 1887, AT 8 P. M.

UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE COMMITTEE ON CLINICAL PATHOLOGY.

J. S. NEFF, M. D., CHAIRMAN.

SUBJECT—PERI-CÆCAL INFLAMMATION.

MORBID ANATOMY	By DR. J. H. MUSSER.
DIAGNOSIS	By DR. WILLIAM PEPPER.
TREATMENT	By DR. THOMAS K. MORTON.

Discussion by Drs. Agnew, Keen, Hunt, Mears, Burton, Osler, and J. C. Wilson.

Propositions for Membership.—Drs. F. A. PACKARD, Pennsylvania Hospital; M. DE FORD, 2933 Richmond Street; H. H. KYNETT, 1728 Spring Garden.

Members who presented Papers between September 1st, 1885, and December 31st, 1886, are requested to forward Full Titles of same, with place and date of publication, to DR. EDWARD JACKSON, 215 South Seventeenth Street, AT ONCE. It is desired that the forthcoming volume of the Transactions shall show the work of the Society during this interim, when no transactions were published.

NOTICE.—Members desiring to read papers before the STATED Meetings, are requested to communicate with H. AUGUSTUS WILSON, M.D., Chairman of Directors, 1611 Spruce Street. Changes of address should be communicated to the Recording and Assistant Secretaries and Chairman of Directors. All other communications should be sent to DR. S. SOLIS-COHEN, Recording Secretary, 219 SOUTH 17TH STREET.

A. C. W. BEECHER, M.D., Assistant Secretary, 523 South Ninth Street.

Joseph H. Neff, Health Commissioner of Philadelphia.

Joseph Neff Health Commissioner of Phila

*Heads in Toronto for Chunks and nuts Ogden cannot send his Chorea papers who
a New Year with Sami was he had forgotten to order refund-jobs, of his Chorea papers and was taken at work in the nervous distress of children and found over the needs at the infirmaries.*