Dear O.

Do come this week - we are brim full of interesting cases of all sorts & I am sure you could be very comfortable. Drive direct to the Hospital & you will find he here.

Yours &c
Wm. Osler.

By this time the House staff has been augmented by the appointments of W. H. Mayer August Hoch, W. H. Baltzell, Simon Flexner, W. J. Howard, C. E. Simon, W. W. Russell and others and an elaborate schedule has been worked out for ^{the winter course} ~~graduate~~ teaching which attracted a large number of post graduate students. The morning sessions were getting under way, Orlin presiding at the medical meetings and being the moving spirit of the Historical Club. He recently was at the bank, date had begun to collect material for his ^{account} ~~study~~ of Beaumont and Alexis St Martin and to be published late winter years later. On September 27th he writes Dr Baumgartner of St Louis:
