Dear Old Man

Shall be so glad to see you - looked for you last Sunday. I am still buried in these infernal proofs. They have been cruelly slow - only up to about 700 pages but they keep me very busy. Poor Wilson would have been bitterly disappointed had he not got the berth - tho. it would have been lovely for you I hope to be in Phila one day this week - if so I will telegraph you & we might have luncheon together

Yours ever.

W.O.
