

W. O., to J. George Adami.
March 29, 1893.

1 West Franklin Street.

Dear Dr. Adami: Thank you for the interesting report of your lecture,* which I had already read in the journal.

I hope that when the session's work is over you may be able to come down and see us here. I shall be away for Easter week, but after that at any time we would be glad to give you a bed.

Very truly yours,
Wm. Osler.

J.G.A.* Inaugural lecture at McGill. Delivered Jan 1893. I arrived in Nov. 1892, and found waiting for me a letter of greeting from Osler. This, the first letter from him, I cannot put my hands on.
