

From Garrison's Life of Billings

page 393

Re John Billings:

Those of us who were his associates in organisation of the Johns Hopkins Hospital can never forget how unsparing he was of his valuable help, and to me his friendship was one of the most precious gifts of those early days.

wd