

No sooner had he fallen home than this from Schäfer - he would have been ahead of the home.

undoubtedly 1893 CUS417/89.34

From W.O.

Prof.
Dr. Edward S. Schäfer for W.O.

1, West Franklin St.

Oct. 3, '94. To Edw. S. Schäfer
1893

Dear Schäfer,

The invitation of the Executive Committee of the B.A.A.S. came I suppose through you. I hope to be at the meeting. Our intention is to leave on the 26th of May for Paris, direct, and shall reach London about the middle of July. If you think it would be of interest, I might present a short paper at your section on "The Significance of Leucocytosis". Have you seen anything of Martin? He left for London about ten weeks ago. As you have perhaps heard he has had a sad break up - domestic worries, wife's death, alcohol.* He resigned last Summer and I hoped that six months at a quiet place, under strict control, would cure the habit, but it recurred. He left however in good spirits and after a month in one of the private rooms at the Hospital he was better than he had been for months.

Letters to Sir Edward Schäfer. 5.

Love to all at home.

Sincerely yours,

WM OSLER.

*
Maurice Martin

Aug 5th

8th
Aug. Oxford, stayed at Clarendon Hotel.

An evening gathering, Salis being the Chancellor, the Oates sat in a little <sup>to the Sheldonian</sup> parlour and watched the proceedings as just a little drawing that some day they would be more active participants and in similar Convocations.

Sadyo, remembers Huxley but not being here speak

The museum unravels the method <sup>Aug 6th</sup> a very small affair

~~Some faint, illegible handwriting~~

For