

Baltimore, Dec. 29th, 1893.

Dear Jacobs;

Thanks for your Christmas cards. I have been reproaching myself very much for not having been out to see you in your seclusion. I must drive out one afternoon soon. I hope that you will get a respite ere long from the very close confinement. ✦

Sincerely yours,

Wm. Osler.

Robert Forrester (2)