

CUS417/91.23

An interesting letter on proposed mottoes for the Physiol. Laboratories.

Letter from B. Jones.

X

July 12.

Jowett

Oxford.

Common Place Box.

Dear Professor Sanderson,

Two mottoes from Lucretius appear to me the best:

For the first inscription:

"Eadem ratio res terminat omnes".

For the second.

"Ita res accendunt lumina rebus".

Other mottoes are:

Naturara sequi [optimam ducere] eque parere. (?) Cicero.

Alid ex alio clarescet. Lucretius.

Ex eterno ventate causarumque continuatione confluit accidit. Cicero.

Yours most truly,

B. Jones.