

CU5417/97.18

No.1 W.Franklin Street,

Baltimore, March 4th., 1901

Dear Miss Charlton:-

Yes, for two reasons; first, that I could watch the progressive decadence of my mental powers; and secondly, that, as the reprints accumulated on my shelves, I could bind them every ten or five years, and distribute a few sets to the Libraries.

With kind regards,

Sincerely yours,

Dictated.

(Signed)

W. Osler.