

21st July 1901

Sir

His Majesty the King having been graciously pleased to express His willingness to receive a deputation from the Corps <sup>of</sup> Subalterns, at present sitting in London, I am commanded to desire your attendance at Marlborough House on Thursday the 25th instant at 1.30 p.m.

Will you be good enough to come in Civil dress (uniform) or, should you not have a uniform with you, then in evening dress, with a white tie, and will you wear your Orders and decorations.

Yours the honour to be

Sir

Your obedient servant

Derby

Professor Order,
