Baltimore, Nov.21st., 1902.

Dear Miss Charlton:-

I send you four or five copies. Unfortunately there has been such a demand for them that I cannot give you more.

Sorry those books were so late. Please let me know what you paid on them, so that I may refund the money to the Library. So glad that you have had a good year.

Dr.Van Wart is doing very well. They seem to be pleased with him.

Sincerely yours,

Dictated.

W.Osler.
