

(J. H. Medical School - Howell)

CUS417/98.92
Baltimore, Oct. 23rd, 1902.

Dear Howell,

I do not know what we ought to charge them. Do you think one hundred dollars would be too much. If it was Vaughan's son alone I should say not to charge him anything, as I do not like this charging sons of our friends and doctors, but I suppose Vaughan would not like it. Say either one hundred or fifty dollars.

Sincerely yours,
Wm Osler