(To Dr. Irving P. Lyon, Buffalo)

Dear Lyon:

In the months of May and June we have once a week for the post-graduates in the evening a lecture. We are asking a few outside men to give some of them this year. Could you come down and give us one of the lectures of the course, on anything you may have on hand? We cannot offer very much of an honorarium, but there would be a fee of twenty-five dollars, which would cover your travelling expenses, and we can of course put you up here.

I have been making inquiries at one or two places with reference to the patient in whom Mrs. Lyon is interested. I think Mrs. Gundry's home here is admirable. She is a first class woman and the place is well managed, and while she only takes very quiet cases, if the necessity comes to send her away anywhere, a place of the kind managed by a judicious woman might perhaps be the best.

With kind regards to Mrs. Lyon,

Sincerely yours,

W^m Osler.
