Dear Dana

Sunday Eve.
(Mar 4, 1905)

I cannot go to bed without sending you a line of heartfelt thanks for that delightful evening. It was really a most memorable occasion, one which I shall cherish while 'Memory holds a seat' &c I enjoyed your remarks hugely & I hope to have a chance to read them Mrs Osler is enchanted with the Medallion - indeed the whole affair was worthy of the club.

Ever yours
