(Letter to Sir John W. Moore)

Dublin
(typewritten)

7, NORHAM GARDENS,
OXFORD

Dear Sir John:-

I really do not like to refuse you, but I am tied up, so to speak, in a very awkward way for October. I have already made four or five engagements. Mentally too, I am rather dессicated, having had a most trying year, so that I think I must ask you to excuse me.

With sincere regards,

Faithfully yours,

WM OSLER

(letter declining Sir John W. Moore's invitation to give the paper an appeal for an address at the Meeting of the Law Society at the time of the coming winter session. We to be in Dublin at the time.
