Had just got comfortably settled at Kyleakin "a quiet little place with houses standing around the green, and an old fashioned white washed hotel" to quote the guide book. Here they played ~~some~~ fished and walked on the moors and one day met a young man whom we botanized. G. Gunn.

Dear Campbell:-

All right about Smith's photo - It will do quite well. I will write to B. about your leave at the end of Jan. It would be very nice to come over beide zusammen A.G. and Isaac will have to leave earlier.
I agree with you about the smaller place - three mos. should do. Who has succeeded Knebl at Tubinghn? We are having a delightful trip in Scotland; we spent a week with the Phipps. Ike caught some trout and landed a huge pike about which he dreams and talks all the time. We are going to stop a few days with Jared! They wrote asking ~~us~~ and as they seem inclined to be decent to Marjorie I thought it best to accept. A declension would have been misunderstood, as I do not wish to keep up any feeling of resentment, which I think was perfectly warranted considering their behavior.

By the way you did not include the photograph of that big bladder - the before and after and Boggs appearing with the tumor in the jar.
I am glad you have the tetany paper off your hands. The others will keep you busy. I am sure the dilatation of the stomach will make a good subject at which to work.

Sincerely yours,
