

CUS417/103.49

October 7th, 1905.

From Oxford.

Dear Libman:-

I just returned from Paris last evening and found your perfectly splendid drawing. It is remarkably good. Do please let me have a memorandum of the cost. I could not think of allowing you to bear the expense. When I get to the subject of the embolic aneurism in my lectures I hope you will allow me to use it. It would be well, I think, if you could work up the subject thoroughly.

Sincerely yours,