

(Mr. Chamberlain)

Tariff Reform Meeting, Dec. 8, 1905

7, Norham Gardens,
Oxford.

November 16, 1905.

Dear Mr. Warren,

Yes, if you think it will be all right. I should be very glad indeed to say a few words, certainly not too many.

With kind regards,

Sincerely yours,

WM OSLER .

The President of Mandarins invited me to speak at a political rally at the Tariff Reform League. Probably his first and last appearance as he was under obligations to women and Mrs. Chamberlain (formerly Miss Endicott of Boston) was on one friend of Mrs. Osler.

The C's were at 7 North St. later and was successful and peacefully avoided the public view in a few well chosen words.

In politics we are very strong imperialist.

- ① a tariff reformer.
- ② became intense an ordinary Liberal

(occasionally loses Herbert Spencer)
(not fusion!!)

In 1919 (about Jan) they wanted him to stand as Coalition Candidate for Oxford to support the Lloyd George Liberals or the Unionists = (the Coalition just a compromise first, but unionist conservative ideas not just included. Into the labor element broke away, and in 1919 the St Independent Liberals under Asquith had proposed a Lloyd George Unionist support but were trying to get back into power, and ~~and of Home Rule supporters~~
We feel that Asquith should be sent well because of Oxford earlier opponents are Home - D. H. H. H.
