Dear Shepherd:-

Thanks for your letter and for the promise of the apples. I am afraid they have gone astray again. I went to London twice to <sup>see</sup> Elliot Galt. He had slight ascites associated, I am afraid, with a rather hard liver, at least, the edge feels rounded and board-like. He improved wonderfully with a couple of weeks' rest in bed, and has now gone off to Italy.

I sail on Saturday. I hope to see you in Montreal about the 28th. or 29th. We go direct to Mrs. Revere at Canton.

Love to Cecil and Dorothy.

Sincerely yours,

W<sup>m</sup> Osler
