

YCUS 417/104.40
Oxford, 7 Norham Gardens, March 27th, 1906

(A.C. Klebs)...I send you a copy of my remarks. I should ^{think} that they would go best in the Journal of the American Medical Association.....When you come to Oxford, I could put you up at Christ Church, or, you could better still come to the house. I will look in Schmidt's Dictionary for the Shakespeare quotation. It will be very strange if I have misquoted it. I am almost certain it is from him.