To:

SIR JOHN MACALISTER.

13, Norham Gardens, Oxford.

May 21st, 1908.

Dear MacAlister:

Letter Typewritten.

I am just back from Cardiff and find your telegram and letter.

I was depending upon a mutual friend who said he would let me know at once when Mr. Morgan returned. Instead of the ordinary typewritten letter I thought it would be much better to send him a statement in print and I enclose you a proof in which you will see there are a number of lacunae. Please look over it and return at your earliest convenience. I will write at once and ask for an appointment for Church and Myself. I have had a long letter from Kinnicut, a warm personal friend of J.P.M., who has already written to him. I am afraid it will be hard to push matters. From what his friend says, he is not a man to be hurried in these matters. He brooded some months over the Harvard bequest...

Sinderely yours,

Thus he Endeavoud Winterest in worths course hi american friend who were will to do , he follow Hanny Phippy frods him, with an article or a tabood suggest & Months
