

(Typewritten)

(To Dr. Joseph H. Pratt)

13, Norham Gardens, Oxford.
July 10, 1908.

Dear Pratt:

I shall leave for Sheffield on Monday the 27th. You had better come here and spend the Sunday comfortably and we could go up together by the morning train. I am glad to hear you have had a profitable visit. We have been having a very busy time here. The weather has been glorious until within a few days ago.

Have you met that young Robinson who has gone from here to work in the anatomical department?

Sincerely yours,

W<sup>m</sup> Osler