Dear Pratt,

I have sent a letter to the boat at Queenstown, but now send bon voyage to the Lusitania. I am sure you will have had a fine time in Dublin, and it is a good place to have seen - full of fine old medical traditions. We are having such a happy time in Scotland wandering about & seeing many interesting places. So glad you have had a good visit - it has been delightful to see you. Love to the boys.

Yours ever,

W.O.
