To

(Mr. Henry Phipps)

Dear Mr. Phipps:

Will you at your convenience settle upon a day for Midhurst.
I am sure you would be most interested in it. We had not a very successful trip to Scotland. The weather was good, but the Fleet river in which Revere had fishing was too low and too clear. We enjoyed seeing that part of the country.

cf. 1908

I am so sorry to hear that Mrs. Guest had such an accident and fright.

Sincerely yours,

Wm. Osler.
