(In Dr. Osler's hand-writing)

44 Ave d' Jena. 8th. (Nov.1908)

Dear Harry T.-

I will look up Petit today in the library. How interesting! Too bad that Hal should have broken his leg. Everyone writes enthusiastically about the Congress. Lectures have just begun--they are very late in beginning and as yet very irregular. I begin with Raymond tomorrow morning; I wish you were here. How is all at home?

Yours,

W.O.
