

(From Edwin A. Alderman to W. O. - introducing Walter H. Page)

University of Virginia,
Charlottesville,
April 27, 1909.

My dear Dr. Osler:

May I introduce to you my friend, Dr. Walter H. Page, Editor of the World's Work and formerly Editor of the Atlantic Monthly. Dr. Page is a Hopkins man of the early days, and I am sure you know something of his services to American letters and to American Education. No man of his time has been more helpful in both directions. He will make my compliments to Mrs. Osler. I wish I could greet you in Oxford this summer.

Very sincerely,

Edwin A. Alderman
President.