(To Dr. T. R. Boggs, J.H.H.)

FROM THE REGIUS PROFESSOR OF MEDICINE, OXFORD.

Nov. 17th, 1909.

Dear Boggs:

I enclose you a cheque of 100 dollars for Parson's work. I suppose the poor fellow has been ill, and has not been able to send on the sheets which he has done. I am rather anxious to get them as soon as possible. My lecture will be out in the B.M.J. of next week.

Storstein?

Sincerely yours,

W<sup>m</sup> Osler.
