Sept. 17th, 1910.

Dear Boggs:

I was very sorry to miss you, I had no idea that you were in Boston, or we probably might have arranged to meet.

Everyone speaks hopefully of your new clinical venture; I am sure you will like the work, and it is so satisfactory to know that you are to have some teaching. I hope to see you next year in your new quarters.

Sincerely yours,

W<sup>m</sup> Osler
