Dear Doyne, rosser vm mso I as vireind as nov evin won Jahr The idea certainly was to have Adams ap cinted, and not to bring anybedy from the outside. I quite agree with you that it would be the greatest possible mistake to divide the work here. Adams is such a good fellow, and so close to you that I should think it would be a great advantage, only I can forsee the difficulty to which you refer, that should you at any time withdraw from Oxford the position of Assistand Surgeon wohld be vacant, and might bring in another man. I would like very much to have a talk with you about the situation. I have to go to Bristol next Wednesday, What other days are you in town? serew needing their ser as suited and the own in the control of eseine ylexilor ed bloow box istreton i (Unsigned) que ebivit of now en
