2nd: Survey

Dear Jacobs:-

So sorry not to have been able to stay today and see you, but I had to motor from town this morning with a bevy of boys with whom I was dining last night. We have just had 15 of them to tea - such nice fellows, a club. Three of them went on a pilgrimage to the U.S. Hospitals this winter. I will come to see you on Tuesday - will let you know the hour. I hope you will be able to give us a day here.

The Payne Library yet unsettled. I am putting the case before Mr. Phipps tomorrow. The reserve price is ~~£~~ 2750. I expect the auction would fetch a higher figure, tho' medical books are uncertain. It is a choice collection which could not be duplicated. I shall be heartbroken to miss it.

Yours ever,

W.O.

Love to Mrs. Jacobs.
