

13, Norham Gardens, Oxford,

(July 28th, 1911).

Dear Mrs. Jacobs;

I cannot tell you what a sorrow it is to have you go without seeing you or how sorry I have been for you all these weeks. Fancy you having been in England in a blaze of sunshine and being shut up in Clifford St. I hope you get off and have a peaceful crossing. Newport will restore you. I shall hope to see you at Uplands in October. Love & good wishes for you both

Affectionately,

Grace R. Osler.
