Dear Mac

It was very nice to hear from you. These letters do not seem to make any difference in ones feelings or in the circumference of my head. I had hoped perhaps we might see you here this summer. Campbell Howard told me of his visit to you. He had "achieved a maid that paragons perfection" to use Iago's expression - or was it Cassio's? Otilie Wright, daughter of the late Dr. H. P. W. of Ottawa. She has been with us on and off for the past two years and is one of the darlings of my heart, so you can understand how happy we are about it. I am so glad to hear that you are happy in New York. I knew it would not take you long to make good! Mrs. Osler sends love.

Yours ever

My greetings to your family.

Wm. Osler
