Dear Adami,

I am afraid I shall miss you, to my great regret. I am going to Glasgow on Tuesday evening, and do not return before Friday morning.

With reference to the North Western, if they can give you control of a really big Institute, I should accept. You would be, I am sure, very happy out there and there are some excellent men connected with the school. If you had a big budget, you could get about you a splendid group of young men. I wish I could have a chance of talking matters over with you. They would miss you terribly at Montreal, but if they can do the thing "tophole", as the boys say here, at Chicago, I do not see how you could refuse.

Sincerely yours,

WM OSLER.

Love to L.M.C.
