

Oxford, 23rd May, 1912.

Dear Jacobs;-

I have got the first edition of the "De Trinitate" of Servetus. The price mentioned is very reasonable. I have forgotten what I gave for mine, but think I got it at an auction.

So glad to hear that Mrs. Jacobs is better. We are having a very busy season, so that there is a great deal to do. The weather has been exceptionally fine.

We had Christian and four of his young friends with us last week. He is very enthusiastic about the Boston prospectus. I do hope they will not secure Mall, as he would be a very serious loss.

Love to Mrs. Jacobs,

Sincerely yours,

Wm. Osler.
