(To Leonard Mackall)

FROM THE REGIUS PROFESSOR OF MEDICINE, OXFORD.

11th July, 1912.

Dear Mackall:

I had not seen Cuthbertson's book, but have sent for it. He must be a good deal of a fool! I am glad of the reference to Murr's Journal.

The first Dutch edition of the Religio was 1665. It reappeared in 1683; I have both; then in 1688 a fine quarto edition of the work appeared, and it is this one I am looking for. I did not know of any Pseudodoxia edition of 1668.

I think I have got a duplicate copy of the 2nd edition of William's bibliography of the Religio; I will look it out and send it.

I must refer to White's book about the article in "Science;" I have forgotten.

Billy Francis is at St. Agathe, Denmonts, P.Q., and is doing very well.

Sincerely yours,

W<sup>m</sup> Osler
