(Typewritten)

(To Mr. Henry Phipps)

From the Regius Professor of Medicine, Oxford.

24th July, 1912.

Dear Mr. Phipps,

So sorry I could not come this morning, but I was called away unexpectedly; and will you please tell Mrs. Guest that I find I have an engagement here tomorrow with some people at lunch, so that I will call and see you at 6 o'clock.

It would settle matters satisfactorily, I think, if you sent word to Mr. Nigel Bond (49 Sloane Square, London S.W.) that you understood specifically that the money given to the Oxford Endowment Fund was to be used in connection with Professor Osler's Department.

Sincerely yours,

Wm. Osler.

13, Norham Gardens.
