

(Typewritten)

(To Leonard L. Mackall, at Jena)

FROM THE REGIUS PROFESSOR OF MEDICINE, OXFORD.

Sept. 21, 1912.

Dear Mackall:

I am afraid there is not much chance of my getting over this autumn as I had hoped to.

Thanks for the reference to A. D. White's History. I had forgotten all about the address* and I have not a reprint of it. You have got my Aequanimitas volume, I suppose? Have you the second edition with the three additional addresses?

I will write to Pollard about the March meeting. As a rule we have but one paper, but if yours is not very long, it might come in just an extra. I will let you know what Pollard says.

I saw in Edinburgh the third copy of the "Restitutio Christian." which lacks the first 16 pages. Perhaps you have seen Cuthbertson's little book on Servetus? A Tragedy of the Reformation, Edinburgh. If not, if you don't want to buy it, I could lend you my copy. Many thanks for the slips.

We had a very good holiday in Scotland. You will be glad to hear that Billy Francis is quite well again, and is taking up work as editor of the Journal of the Canadian Medical Association.

Sincerely yours,

W^m Osler

Keep an eye open for any good med. incunabula.
