From the Regius Professor of Medicine, Oxford.

21st Nov., 1912.

Dear Nixon:

Do find out where that Harvey portrait is, near Bristol, and see if I could have a photograph taken. I was awfully sorry you had to go last evening. That fool at the end was perfectly delicious. Stir up any of the other Bristol men to join the section. It will be a very useful organization.

Sincerely yours,

W^m Osler.
